PROJECTS

Predicting Viral Artificial-Intelligence Tweets

- Developed a machine learning pipeline to predict tweet virality using a dataset of over 820,000 AI-related tweets, analysing engagement patterns in an imbalanced dataset.
- Applied text analysis (TF-IDF) and sentiment analysis (VADER) to analyse tweet content, used Random Forest and stacking ensemble models to predict tweet virality, and applied SMOTE-Tomek to address imbalanced data. Developed a Power BI dashboard to visualize engagement patterns and findings.

World Happiness Report 2015 Data Analysis

- Analysed data from 158 countries to examine the relationships between economic, social, and health-related factors and national happiness scores.
- Used SAS Studio for data preparation, visualization, descriptive statistics, Pearson correlation, independent-samples t-tests, and multiple linear regression, including diagnostic assumption testing.

Global Food & Plastic Waste Analytics Project

- Analysed global food waste and mismanaged plastic waste datasets from 2010–2019, performing data validation and cleaning to prepare the data for statistical analysis.
- Utilized SAS for iterative data cleaning, Complete-Case Filtering protocols, correlation, and regression analysis.

Tech Innovation Hackathon Management System

- Designed an 11-table normalized relational database schema to support event operations, cross-university participant and team management, and project evaluations.
- Used SQL and entity-relationship modelling to define database relationships and maintain referential and data integrity.

Smart Petrol Station Management Information System

- Designed a proposed smart petrol station information system connecting IoT sensors, payment gateways, customer mobile applications, and employee portals.
- Developed sequence diagrams, data dictionaries, data flow mappings, system boundaries, and IoT data integration workflows.
